

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practices

Global Healthcare Innovation Management Center (EmblemHealth Value Initiative)
Fordham Center on Religion and Culture
March 8, 2016

(Click on the links for access to full videos of the sessions)

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practices - Session 1:

Welcome: Falguni Sen, Global Healthcare Innovation Management Center; James P. McCartin, Fordham Center on Religion and Culture

What Does It Mean to Be Healthy? Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Well-Being

Keynote: Andrew Solomon, author, Far From the Tree: Parents, Children, and the Search for Identity and The Noonday Demon: An Atlas of Depression

Moderator James P. McCartin, Fordham Center on Religion and Culture

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practice - Session 2:

Session 2: The Case for Diversity- Why Medicine Needs Faith and Culture

Panelists: Richard Shweder, University of Chicago; Rosanne Haggerty, Community Solutions; Marc Galanter, NYU Langone Medical Center

Moderator: Patrick J. Howell, Seattle University

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practices - Session 3:

Session 3: New Directions in Behavioral Healthcare- What Value Do Faith, Family, and Community Add to Diagnosis and Care?

Panelists: Nancy Kehoe, Expanding Connections; Lisa J. Miller, Columbia University Teachers College; Barry S. Anton, American Psychological Association

Moderator: Roberto Lewis-Fernandez, Columbia University Medical School

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practices - Session 4:

Session IV: Completing the Cycle of Care- Integrating Behavioral, Spiritual, and Physical Health in Elder Care

Panelists: M. Carrington Reid, Weill Cornell Medical College; Alan Dienstag, Larchmont-Mamaroneck Community Counseling Center; Jeanne Dennis, Visiting Nurse Association of New York

Moderator: Rachel Cowan, Institute for Jewish Spirituality

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practices - Session 5:

Session V: Spiritual and Cultural Diversity under the Affordable Care Act- Practical Challenges and Opportunities for Providers

Speaker: Acacia Bamberg Salatti, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Moderator: Falguni Sen

Treat the Patient, Heal the Person: Embracing Spiritual and Cultural Diversity in Contemporary Health Practices - Session 6 Wrap-up: